

A NEW HOT SUBDWARF

M. Jaschek and C. Jaschek (Observatorio Astronómico, La Plata).

HD 49798 was found to be a hot subdwarf. It is, at the present time the brightest member of this group and also the only one known spectroscopic binary.

The complete paper will appear in the "Publications of the Astronomical Society of the Pacific".