

THE HII REGIONS IN GALAXIES

J.L.Sérsic
(Observatorio Astronómico, Córdoba)

The correlation between morphological type and the diameters of the largest HII complexes in galaxies is interpreted theoretically as a consequence of the rate of stellar formation of massive stars and the original luminosity function in galaxies.